

Happy Thursday!

Here are some things you should know

Remember this week

Monday April 10 through Wednesday April 12, we gather each evening at 5 p.m. in the chapel to read portions of Matthew's Passion Narrative, a recitation with reflections and time for quiet prayer

A big thank you to Elaine Parkes for managing the office while I was away. It always helps to know you have left things in good hands. I am back (sadly) and I had a wonderful time. Thank you to all who saved the newspaper article about James and his team (you know who you are) – He is thrilled and is starting to send them to pretty much everyone he knows. He is learning to address envelopes which is a good life skill.

Children, Youth & Family Ministry

Children's Sunday School this Sunday during the 10am worship service! It's Palm Sunday so this week will be filled with palm crosses and music makers which we will be making together. And we're going to need your help with handing palm crosses out and making music makers and then making music during the final hymn! Please join us!! All are welcome!

Youth Group meets next on Friday, April 7 from 7-9pm! Tonight we will enter into some time of quiet and explore different spiritual practices.

We'll have stations so you can choose art, quiet, word, writing, and more! Explore one station or them all. And of course, we'll play some games and catch up with one another post-Spring break!

Young Adults message Melissa for more information on our next gathering.

If you have any questions or would like more information about the mentioned programs please contact Melissa Green at stpaulscathedralyouth@gmail.com or call/text 250-682-4866.
