CONGRATULATION TO NORRIS BERG

on the occasion of retirement from directing the Thompson Valley Orchestra for the past Twenty years

Since 1997, Norris Berg has been the Music Director of the Thompson Valley Orchestra. In 1995, newly retired from 23 years of teaching at Grande Prairie Regional College and also from being the String Program Coordinator for the Grande Prairie School District, Norris Berg moved to Kamloops to be closer to his children and grand-children. That year, Norris and his wife Heather started their music studio, Norheath Music, giving lessons in piano and violin. However Norris was missing his orchestra sessions with his students. So he gathered a few musicians to play together for fun. Soon more musicians joined the playing group and the Thompson Valley Community Orchestra was born, giving its first concert in 1997. This weekend the orchestra celebrates Norris' leadership over twenty years.

Norris has a Master of Music degree in Violin Performance from The University of British Columbia. He has played with the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra, Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra and Vancouver Opera Orchestra. He has frequently served as the String Adjudicator for Kiwanis Music Festival in Medicine Hat, Dawson Creek, Calgary, Red Deer and Chilliwack. From 1972-1995, Norris was the String Coordinator for the Grande Prairie School District and taught as a private violin/viola instructor in the Grande Prairie Regional College Conservatory.

Since 1995 Norris and his wife, Heather, have been the Music Directors for St. Paul's Anglican Cathedral in Kamloops and they maintain a busy teaching schedule with their violin and piano students in their music studio, Norheath Music.

On behalf of all of us at St. Paul's, congratulations and happy retirement Norris from this aspect of your wonderful music making.

The 2017 Lenten Luncheon Lectures

St. Paul's Anglican Cathedral
Kamloops BC, in the Territory of the People

TERRITORY
OF THE PEOPLE

Risen, Ascended, Glorified

A Liturgy for Ascension Day, May 25, 2017 – 5:30 p.m.

St. Paul's Cathedral, Kamloops in the Territory of the People/Anglican Church
Don't miss this chance to meet with the Anglican Bishop of Montreal, the Rt. Rev. Mary Irwin-Gibson. Potluck to follow in the Ruth Room

Bishop Mary Irwin-Gibson, had been dean and rector of St. George's Cathedral in Kingston since 2009 but is a committed, bilingual Montrealer with family connections and 28 years' service in the diocese.

Bishop Irwin-Gibson, who moved to the Montreal area as a young girl and grew up in the area, was ordained as a deacon and priest in 1981 and 1982. She served for three years as an assistant curate in the Parish of Vaudreuil, then for seven years as rector of the Parish of Dunham-Frelighsburg in Quebec until 1991.

She spent 18 years as rector of Holy Trinity Church in Ste-Agathe-des-Monts, in the Laurentians, earning an MBA in French along the way from the Université du Québec à Montréal (UQAM). In 2009, she became the rector at St. George's Cathedral in Kingston.

When nominations were open for the next Anglican bishop of Montreal, "I felt the Holy Spirit asking me to let my name stand," she told Matt Gardner of the Anglican Church of Canada news service.

"I was willing to go if I was elected and willing to stay (in Kingston) if I wasn't elected, because something I've learned from the military (in Kingston) about deployment is that when the boss calls you to go, you go, and if the boss says stay, you stay. And the Holy Spirit's the boss."

Bishop Mary visits our territory to participate in our forthcoming Assembly. The Anglican Diocese of Montreal has partnered with our Territory for many years now. Her visit continues a long tradition of sharing and celebrating God's abundant life in our midst.
