October 1st, 2017 | Season of Creation, Week Four

St. Francis of Assisi

We gather today on the traditional territory of the Tk'emlúps te Secwepemc – Kamloops & Area First Nation. We acknowledge their care for and working of the land prior to contact with Europeans. As Canadian Anglicans, we continue to work toward healing and reconciliation and a new experience of sharing the land together.

The Celebration of the Eucharist

Hymn

All who thirst for living water,
all who hunger for good bread:
there's a table in the desert –
come and share the feast that's spread.
Celebrating earth's abundance, gathering hope for days to come,
with all those who've gone before us,
we give thanks, O Holy One.

Everlasting is the covenant which the Holy One designs:
steadfast love, a gushing river,
seeds with grace the healing vines.
Seeking life in all its fullness for all creatures, none denied, set our hearts to meet each other,
bridging all that sin divides.

Many are the ways you've chosen to reveal the path of life:
Wisdom's truth for all who seek you,
cross our compass, faith our guide;
You, the strength in all our wandering, spring that wells up deep within,
Friend who bears both pain and glory,
in your light new life begins.

A Eucharistic Prayer from Salal and Cedar Watershed Community

May God be with you

And also with you

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up

Let us give thanks to God our Creator

It is right to give our thanks and praise

It is right in all times and in all places to thank and praise you Creator of all. We praise you here where the Fraser, Nechako and Thompson Rivers flow, where city and farm, wilderness and industry are side by side. We praise you at a time when the body of earth is broken again and again.

We give thanks for our place in the story of salvation. Our ancestors journeyed with you in creation and migration. They depended on the land, were displaced from the land and displaced others from their lands. They knew you in tents and cities, on mountains and by wells, in families and in dreams, and through wilderness prophets who spoke of cedars and listened to ravens.

Together with angels and ancestors, eagle and bear, salmon and sheep, pine and wild rose, we join our voices with all creation in this ancient honour song:

O holy, holy, holy God, O God of time and space.
All earth and sea and sky above bear witness to your grace.
Hosanna in the highest heav'n creation sings your praise.
And blessed is the One who comes and bears your name always!

We give thanks to you for Jesus, whose first bed was a feed trough. He was baptized in the Jordan, tested in the wilderness, he traveled in fishing boats and told parables of farmers and seeds, labor and wages, yeast and bread.

On the night before he died, Jesus took bread, food of the poor, the work of field and hearth, he gave thanks, broke it and gave it to his friends saying: Take and eat, this is my body, given for you, do this to remember me.

Again after supper he took the cup of wine, fruit of the land, gave thanks and gave it to his friends saying: This is my blood, which is shed for you. When you do this, do it in memory of me.

Remembering Jesus' life, death and resurrection and awaiting his coming kingdom, we offer you this bread and this cup.

Creator, send your Spirit on these gifts so that we know Jesus in them and are gathered together with everyone who shares this sacred meal of justice and community.

Fill us with the courage and love of Jesus, that we may strive for justice and peace, respect the dignity of every human being, and safeguard the integrity of creation.

Bring us with all your saints to your commonwealth of sparrow and lily, child and beggar which is both now and yet to come.

All honor and glory are yours, Creator, Christ and Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

SOUP MAKING

Soup making was such a success that we are going to do it again! Please join us Monday October 16 at 11 am in the kitchen to chop, stir and cook soup for our frozen soup program. This time I promise to feed you. Please let the office know if you can attend. Many hands make light work. Can't come but want to help out? Consider preparing a turkey or ham broth from your Thanksgiving feast! As always containers are needed (with lids).

ANOTHER TAKE ON ANGLICANISM

Copies of the book This Anglican Church of Ours are available from the Dean. While we took a topical approach to issues in Anglicanism last year, there is interest in a more general and structured conversation. So come and collect your copy of the book and we will schedule some daytime "coffee conversations" commencing in November.
