

HAPPY Wednesday!

Here are some things you should know

TRU Pride Parade

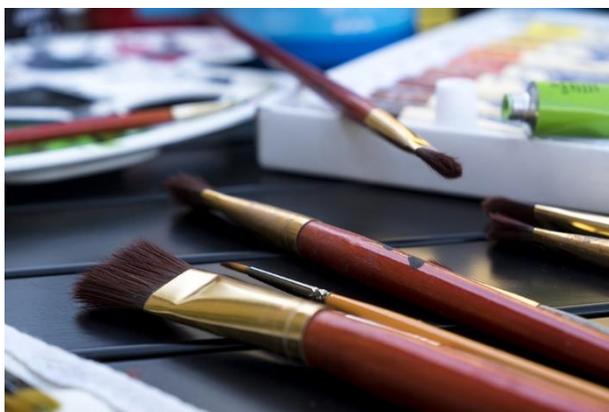

St Paul's folk have been invited to participate in the 7th Annual TRU Student Union Pride Parade this Thursday at 11 am, gathering in front of Old Main Building on campus (near the metered parking at the foot of College). Look for the St Paul's banner there, or if you prefer, carpools will leave the Cathedral at 10:30.

"The TRUSU Pride Parade is an important celebration of the diversity of the TRU community and raises awareness of the many issues that continue to impact our Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans, or Queer, (LGBTQ) friends, colleagues, and neighbours. We believe that you share our commitment to a diverse and inclusive campus and would be a valued participant in the Parade to help us claim TRU as a welcoming place regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity!"

Water Colours: It's your turn to create

NOTE YOU MUST PREREGISTER FOR THIS EVENT

Online : <https://kamloopsanglicanecathedral.com/learn/season-of-creation-sign-up-form/>

Or at the office with a form

We round out this year's programme two ways. Dean Ken will speak during the morning services on the legacy of St. Francis. Each year we will continue the connection with this colourful reforming ecologically aware saint whose image adorns one of our chapel windows. In the afternoon folks are invited to gather for a painting experience called Water Colours at Tricia Selmer's home, 5616 Beaton Road (directions available from the office). It all begins at 1pm Tricia and her assistants will help participants create art in a variety of media. At 4pm we will break for a tea party on the deck and share the results of our labours. This is an All Ages Event. PLEASE NOTE: There is also a small charge of $10/person or $25/family to cover cost of materials.

Claire Away

Why are you getting this a day early you ask yourself? Because I am going away on vacation! Thank you to Miriam Baskin for handing out soup in my absence. I will be back after thanksgiving 😊

Soup Making

Soup making was such a success that we are going to do it again! Please join us Monday October 16 at 11am in the kitchen to chop, stir and cook soup for our frozen soup program. This time I promise to feed you. Please let the office know if you can attend. Many hands make light work. Can't come but want to help out? Consider preparing a turkey or ham broth from your Thanksgiving feast! As always containers are needed (with lids)

In this 4-day workshop students will transform words into imagery. Using their favourite quotes, poetry, passages or other words of wisdom as a starting place, we will explore different ways to bring those words to life.

Our first two days together will be all about design – through a series of simple activities we will create graphic marks, symbols and imagery on paper.

Day 3 and 4 will see us taking those ideas to fabric, creating compositions and completed designs with our chosen words to guide us.

Students will explore the elements of design as well as specialized fabric techniques.
