Joyful – Rooted - Hospitable - Responsive

Sunday, February 12, 2017 – 6th Sunday after Epiphany

I love all beginnings, despite their anxiousness and their uncertainty, which belong to every commencement. If I have earned a pleasure or a reward, or if I wish that something had not happened; if I doubt the worth of an experience and remain in my past--then I choose to begin at this very second. Begin what? I begin. I have already thus begun a thousand lives.

Collect of the Day:

Almighty and everliving God, whose Son Jesus Christ healed the sick and restored them to wholeness of life, look with compassion on the anguish of the world, and by your power make whole all peoples and nations; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Sing a new song

Love is the touch of intangible joy;
love is the force that no fear can destroy;
love is the goodness we gladly applaud:
God is where love is, for love is of God.

Love is the lilt in a lingering voice;
love is the hope that can make us rejoice;
love is the cure for the frightened and flawed:
God is where love is, for love is of God.

Gospel according to Matthew 5:21-37

Al Leake

Love is the light in the tunnel of pain;
love is the will to be whole once again;
love is the trust of a friend on the road:
God is where love is, for love is of God.

Love is the Maker and Spirit and Son;
love is the kingdom their will has begun;
love is the pathway the saints all have trod:
God is where love is, for love is of God.

RITE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS, COMMITTEE MEMBERS AND OTHERS

A reading, from Paul, to the Corinthians (Read by Joan Lukow)

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses. For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body . . .

Dean Friends, it is my pleasure to bring before you these persons elected or appointed to various administrative and leadership roles within our Cathedral parish. These roles include that of warden, APCI delegates, officers, appointees, and committee members at large. To you who have been appointed or elected to your task, do you commit to these various responsibilities trusting in God the Holy Spirit to sustain and inspire you?

All elected and appointed We do.

Dean Do you members of this Cathedral Parish, and other guests present in the room today support these persons in their ministry in our midst, remembering to pray for them and for each other on a regular basis.

All We do.

Dean I affirm and commission all to your special ministries, with thanksgiving for all you do and are in our midst. God bless you . . . and thank you.

Ancient Benedictine Spirituality: The Case for a Dispersed Canadian Community

A LECTURE FOR OUR TERRITORY AND OUR TIMES

St. Paul's Cathedral Church of the Territory of the People

Fr. Martin Brokenleg, Ed.D. OSBCn

As a founder of the Community of St. Aidan, a Canadian Anglican Benedictine community, Fr. Brokenleg will explore how traditional Benedictine disciplines and practices will support a vibrant Canadian church. Founded in 2009, the community follows the Canon Community structure of non-clostered, vowed Benedictines that form around a local Church. The community make St. Barnabas Anglican Church in Victoria their spiritual home. He will provide stimulus for discussion, assisted by a lay and ordained responder, of how such practices can enrich our common life together here in our territory.

Monday, February 27, 10 a.m. till noon

St. Paul's Cathedral, 360 Nicola Street Kamloops

250-372-3912 - stpaulscathedral@shawbiz.ca
