A MESSAGE FROM NICK MONKHOUSE

I am sorry to advise that my wife, Pat Monkhouse died last week. She was a victim of Alzheimer's and had been in care for 19 months. Last week her condition worsened but she was still able to recognize us with that beautiful smile of hers. Her wonderful care givers at the Care Centre where she had been since September 2016 kept her very comfortable and her passing was gentle and peaceful. She will be cremated, and her ashes will be placed in a columbarium in St. Paul's Anglican Church in Vancouver's West End. A family memorial service for her will be held soon. Thanks for your prayers and good wishes.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

The University of Alberta Chorus will perform at Kamloops United Church on Thursday evening, May 2. The next morning KUC will provide a breakfast for sixty singers for which they could use some volunteer assistance using the kitchen facilities at KUC. If anyone from our congregation would be interested in helping to cook or serve to this group on Friday morning (probably eating between 8:30 and 9:00 am), they would certainly appreciate the help!! Please call June or Ron at 250-372-0708.
