The Cathedral Office in the summer

So the Dean is coming and going for a bit, as follows:

Week 2: Wednesday, July 18, 2018 @ 7:30pm
The Hidden Humour in Holy Scripture
with John Bell

Scripture and humour are not comfortable bedfellows. This is not because the Bible is humourless, but because many of us tend to read it as if it were a solemn rule book than the record of a constant dialogue between humanity and its Maker. Prepare to laugh.

Week 3: Wednesday, July 25, 2018 @ 7:30pm
Praying with the Trinity Icon
with Brother James Koester

This week's lecture will be an experience of praying with the icon of the Holy Trinity. Brother James will make some suggestions as to how to pray with this icon and then leave time for the audience to prayerfully gaze at the icon. Following a time of silent gazing there will be an occasion for participants to reflect aloud on what happened for them during the silence.

Week 4: Wednesday, August 1, 2018 @ 7:30pm
Gerotranscendence: Finding God in Aging with Marv Westwood and Lin Langley

Growing people change and develop through every season of life, including older age. Though the physical body begins its decline, later life presents opportunity for wisdom, maturity, authenticity and the soul self to emerge more fully. In this lecture we explore a developmental theory of positive aging called "gerotranscendence" which, as the term suggests, describes a natural process of "rising above aging". We invite you to consider how the material and rational worldviews of earlier decades may be shifting in your own life to a focus on the divine, and with it the promise of greater vitality and life satisfaction.

Week 5: Wednesday, August 8, 2018 @ 7:30pm

Beyond Sola Scriptura; Extra-Canonical Gospels, Poetry, and Other Sacred Texts in the 21st Century with Anna Greenwood-Lee

Are the days of the Reformation's maxim, Sola Scriptura, over? Many people are increasingly turning to texts other than Scripture for meaning and inspiration. What does this mean for the Church, and where might this be leading us?

Come, Visit and Learn about St. Paul's Ministry at Sun Peaks

You may not know that a team of lay people hold a prayer service for the skiing public each Sunday through the winter ski season (December to April) in a purpose-built chapel at Sun peaks Ski Resort.

Everyone is encouraged to come and see the chapel and associated lands in the midst of summer on Saturday, August 18 at 11 a.m.

You will need to purchase a hiking lift pass and come up to top of the first lift for worship and a tour. The wild flowers will likely still be in bloom and there are some catering options near the chapel.

Circular –

Are you available for an hour and a half on Tuesday – Thursday for a couple of weeks in August? The Office needs people to hand out soup to our Soup clients (because Claire is going away)

August 7, 8, 9 (1 person)

August 14,15,16 (2 people)

Soup hand out is 11-12 am so you would need to be at the church by 10:45 – 12:15. August tends to be the busiest month of the year for this program. Interested? Contact the office!
