

St. Paul's Cathedral

Territory of the People

Anglican Church of Canada

Kamloops, BC

Joyful, Rooted, Hospitable, Responsive

Sunday October 21, 2018 ~ 22nd after Pentecost

For even the Son of Man
*did not come to be served,
but to serve,
and to give his life
as a ransom for many.*

Mark 10:45

We gather today on the traditional territory of the Stk'emlupsemc te Secwepemc Nation. We acknowledge their care for and working of the land prior to contact with Europeans. As Canadian Anglicans, we continue to work toward healing and reconciliation and a new experience of sharing the land together.

Holy Communion in the Chapel 8 a.m.

Presider & Preacher: The Dean; Lay Assistant: Lance Weisser
The service begins on page 67 of the Book of Common Prayer
Readings: Job 38:1-7, 34-41; Psalm 104; Hebrews 5:1-10; Mark 10:35-45

Holy Eucharist in the Cathedral at 10 a.m.

Welcome to St. Paul's Cathedral. Our worship service can be found in the green book in your pews beginning on Page 185. Hymns for the service are found in COMMON PRAISE or MORE VOICES in your pew. The receiving of Communion is open to any who feel drawn to Christ. It is Christ's table and we are all his guests. Know that you are welcome here and our delight is in your presence with us. Please join us in the parish hall for refreshments and lively conversation following the service.

Last week's flowers were in loving memory of Irene Edgeworth and other loved ones from Bert & Family. May they rest in peace with all the saints in God's heavenly Kingdom.

This week - We give thanks to God for the lives of the Rt. Rev. Patrick Lee, retired Bishop of Rupert's Land and former Dean of St. Paul's Cathedral and also the life of his wife Mary Lee in whose memory the altar flowers are given by The Rt. Rev. Barbara Andrews. May they rest in peace with all the saints in God's heavenly Kingdom

Jan Richardson

Jan is an artist, writer, and ordained minister in the United Methodist Church. She serves as director of The Wellspring Studio, LLC, and travels widely as a retreat leader and conference speaker. Known for her distinctive intertwining of word and image, Jan's work has attracted an international audience drawn to the welcoming and imaginative spaces that she creates in her books, online blogs, and public events.

A native Floridian several generations over, Jan grew up in Evinston, a small community near the university town of Gainesville. The rural landscape, community traditions, and lifelong relationships fostered a rich sense of place, imagination, and ritual that continue to shape Jan's life and infuse her work.

Jan makes her home in Central Florida. She frequently collaborated with her husband, the singer/songwriter Garrison Dolez, until his sudden death in December 2013.
